Customs Requirement

Customs Requirement

LCL containers may be unstuffed outside the Free Trade Zone (FTZ), subject to the following:

1. All inbound goods in the LCL container must be covered by relevant Customs permits before checkpoint clearance.
 - a) Container number and shipper's seal of the LCL container must be declared in the Customs declaration
2. For any duty/GST suspended goods meant for storage in licensed premises e.g. LW or ZGS warehouse:
 - a) Container must first be unstuffed at approved premises
 - b) Any remaining duty/GST paid goods can either be unstuffed at: (i) the same approved premise; or (ii) the importer's/freight forwarder's premises after unstuffing of duty/GST suspended goods at the approved premises.

Customs Requirement

3. For containers sealed for customs supervision of un-stuffing:
 - a) Customs red seals must not be broken without the supervision or written permission of Singapore Customs
 - b) Application for supervision of un-stuffing of goods should be e-filed at least 1 working day before the operations. Allocation of time slot is subject to manpower availability

4. For containers not sealed for customs supervision or given waiver of supervision, over-landed goods must be accounted to Customs within 24-hours from the time of un-stuffing.
 - a) Declare a duty/GST in-payment permit to cover the over-landed goods
 - b) Make a voluntary disclosure (VDP) to Singapore Customs

Smuggling of Contraband

- LCL Shipments can be used to smuggle in contraband such as duty unpaid cigarettes or liquors.
- They can be imported in under false permit declarations such as “seasoning products” for liquors or hidden via coverloads such as paintings or light fixtures.

Red Flags: Signs of Non-Compliance

- Omission of freight/insurance charges when determining the CIF value
- Heavy and bulky shipments declared with low value, especially when CIF value declared is even lower than the freight charges
- Luxury or high-value items declared with low value
- Highly-insured shipments declared with low value

Tell-Tale Signs of a Suspicious Shipment

Companies are advised to highlight suspicious shipments to safeguard your company

Tell-Tale Signs
Goods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Goods with compartments or cavities which can be used to conceal contrabands • Weight of cargo does not correspond with declared weight of items
Delivery Address	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invalid delivery address • Last minute change in delivery address • Delivery to a location which is not a proper residential or business unit (e.g. void decks) • Items delivered to suspicious locations; e.g. industrial oven delivered to HDB, treadmills delivered to non-sports company
Delivery Contact Number	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invalid contact number • Last minute change in contact number • Repeated calls received to check on status of delivery, or requesting for self-collection • Sense of urgency by caller

Reporting Duty and GST Evasion, and Other Illicit Trade

Report to Us

Report duty/Goods and Services Tax \(GST\) Evasion and Other Illicit Trade

If you are aware of any individual or business which has evaded duty/GST or have information on any other illicit trade activities, you may provide information to Singapore Customs using the reporting template.

Reporting of Customs Offences

Singapore Customs takes a serious view of import tax evasion and other violations of Customs laws relating to import, export and transhipment of goods.

By reporting illicit trade practices, you will contribute to maintaining the integrity of Singapore's trading system where individuals and businesses conduct trade fairly, and pay the correct amount of taxes.

1. Describe in detail on how duty/GST evasion or illicit trade practices were carried out:

2. How did you get to know of the duty/GST evasion or illicit trade practices?

Unauthorized Breaking of Customs Seal

Unauthorized Breaking of Customs Seal

Proper Procedures

1. For containers affixed with Customs red seal, consignees or their transport agents must apply to Singapore Customs for supervision on the un-stuffing of goods
2. E-filing for supervision of un-stuffing of goods should be at least 1 working day before operation
3. Allocation for operation is subject to manpower availability
4. Customs seals must not be broken without supervision or written permission of Singapore Customs

Undeclared Items

- There may be situations where items not declared in the importation permit were also packed along with the consignment.
- These items can consist of dutiable and controlled goods and are imported without the approval from the relevant Competent Authority.

Undeclared Items

Proper Procedures

1. Remind overseas consolidator not to pack “extra goods” into the container and furnish accurate and complete manifest/packing list
2. Ensure that Customs permits for all items are approved by Customs prior to clearance of container from FTZ
3. If undeclared items are found after un-stuffing:
 - a) Declare a duty/GST payment permit to cover the over-landed goods
 - b) Make a voluntary disclosure to Singapore Customs

Undeclared Items

Proper Procedures

4. Acknowledgement (advance notification, license and certificate approvals) must be obtained from Competent Authority (CA) (e.g. HSA, SFA) prior to importation if the goods are controlled
5. List of Controlled Goods can be found on Customs website:
<https://www.customs.gov.sg/businesses/importing-goods/controlled-and-prohibited-goods-for-import>
 - a) Examples
 - i. Toy guns, pistols and revolvers
 - ii. Publications and audio records
 - iii. Pharmaceutical products

Incorrect Declarations

1. Line Item Number

2. HS Code

3. Item Description

4. Container Number

5. Value

Goods classified under different HS codes were consolidated into one single line item in the TradeNet declaration.

Incorrect Use of Generic UEN

There are instances where importers have used UENs 99999000000N (Used Personal Effects UEN) or 99999990000C (Miscellaneous UEN) to declare goods imported for commercial purposes.

Examples of consignments that should not be under generic UENs

1. Importing the same or similar items many times (e.g. prayer alters, garments, furniture, bedroom cabinets)
2. Companies/schools importing goods
 - a) Refer to “Correct Usage of Generic Unique Entity Numbers in Tradenet Declarations” (Circular No: 11/2014 dated 17th July 2014).
 - i. <https://www.customs.gov.sg/news-and-media/circulars/2014-07-17-circular112014.pdf>

Incorrect Use of Generic UEN

Proper Procedures

1. 99999000000N (Used Personal Effects UEN) and HS code 9892.00.21 should only be used if the goods are used household items and personal effects
2. 99999990000C (Miscellaneous UEN) should only be used to import goods by individuals for non-commercial purposes
 - a) UEN of actual importer should be used for commercial goods
3. Full name of the individual should be declared in the “importer name” field when using the generic UENs

Importation of Counterfeit Goods

Counterfeit goods can involve either luxury goods or high value items declared as a low value.

Offences and Penalties

Singapore Customs takes a serious view on the failure to make a declaration under the Customs Act

Any person guilty of failing to make a declaration or making an incorrect declaration under the Customs Act is liable on conviction

A fine up to $10,000, or the equivalent of amount of the customs duty, excise duty and GST payable, whichever is higher

OR

An imprisonment for a term up to 12 months
